

The National Valve Museum

Thanks to Bill Dacey, Peter Bates, Alan Stepney, Robert Coleman and Stig Comstadt for donations and contributions this month.

Wanted: Has anyone got a Tungfram/Sargrove UA-55 they could donate?

Updates March 2014

Exhibits as of 25/02/14 = 3463 now 3600 some with new box designs.

Technical feature add116 - Compactrons.

Technical feature add117 – Should a glowing valve be discarded?

Technical feature add118 – Heater-Cathode Insulation.

Article art-168 is a tutorial on the Mullard PC97 and is taken from the In Your Workshop series from The Radio Constructor.

Article art-169 describes the ELL80 and 6DY7 frame grid double beam tetrode for economical stereo amplifiers. Plus a new 6DY7 exhibit.

Article art-170 gives details of manufactures valve codes.

Article art-171 Grid Current and Grid Blocking by Brian Dance.

Timeline article time063 Spanning the Atlantic by Wireless Telegraphy

A new collection of very early valves belonging to G8BLW has been added.

Mufax Chart Recorder maintenance manual.

Commencement of an article on the uTracer valve tester/curve tracer.

Cleaned up OCR artefacts from all Articles.

Added pin diagram for the Ct5 base.

Added cover illustrations to more references.